2012 Customer Survey – Results Summary

Background

2009
In 2009, surveys were sent to 4,000 randomly selected customers with a 17.3% response rate. The survey asked six questions, with question five asking customers to rank issues that are important to them. The questions asked were consistent with those asked in previous years. Top priorities of customers were water quality and cost, followed by water reliability and water security.

2010
In November, 2010, surveys were sent to 4,000 randomly selected customers and asked the same six questions as in 2009. The response rate was an outstanding 24% (946 responses) – 7% higher than 2009. Consistent with the 2009 survey, water quality and cost ranked as customer’s highest priorities, followed by water reliability and water security.

2012
In September, 2012, surveys were sent to 4,000 randomly selected customers and the same six questions were asked. The response rate was once again considered outstanding at 25% (989 responses) – even higher than the 2010 survey. Consistent with past surveys, water quality and reliability were identified as most important followed by cost and security of water supply and quality.

Dear Customer,

As part of the EID’s commitment to delivering the best services possible, we are asking you to complete the survey on the other side of this page and return it to the District in the enclosed stamped envelope by October 3, 2012.

This is an anonymous survey of randomly selected EID water and wastewater customers. We hope you will take the time to complete and return it. We intend to use the results of the survey in our ongoing strategic planning processes.

This is the third year we have conducted this survey. Like past surveys, we will publish the results in the District’s newsletter, The Waterfront, that will be mailed with your bill in January and February 2013. And, we will post the results to our website in a special feature which will be sent to local and regional community organizations, including the media.

Your opinion matters to us, and we look forward to receiving your response.

Sincerely,

Jim Abercrombie
General Manager
